

WILD FRIENDS

WILD SIRENDA is the exhilarating force of love that is Lizz LaRouge and Guinevere. One the Wild. One the Sirenda. A music, voice and dance transmission that creates a space for powerful transformation on any dance floor.

In 2013 Wild Sirenda was conceived as a DJ/ Vocalist alliance housing an ambitious vision: to create a movement of empowerment through their music and their message. Representing perfect opposites - light and dark, masculine and feminine, these two relatable women hold a clear intention to help activate and awaken every heart on the dance floor.

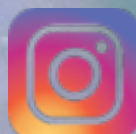

Having trained with master teachers in sound healing, ceremony and shamanic practice, as well as having a wealth of experience in music and performance, both Lizz and Guinevere combine their wisdom to create an immersive experience. Moving through deep house, tech house and world music, Lizz creates a soundscape that moves from tribal to etheric. Using ancient techniques to become a vocal channel between the seen and unseen, recording artist Guinevere shares messages of universal wisdom to help awaken the collective consciousness.

Riding the ever-growing wave of modern day spiritual pursuit, they are providing a much desired depth of experience that is starting to gain attention in music scenes around the world, often be requested to combine their shows with their renowned giant cacao ceremonies.

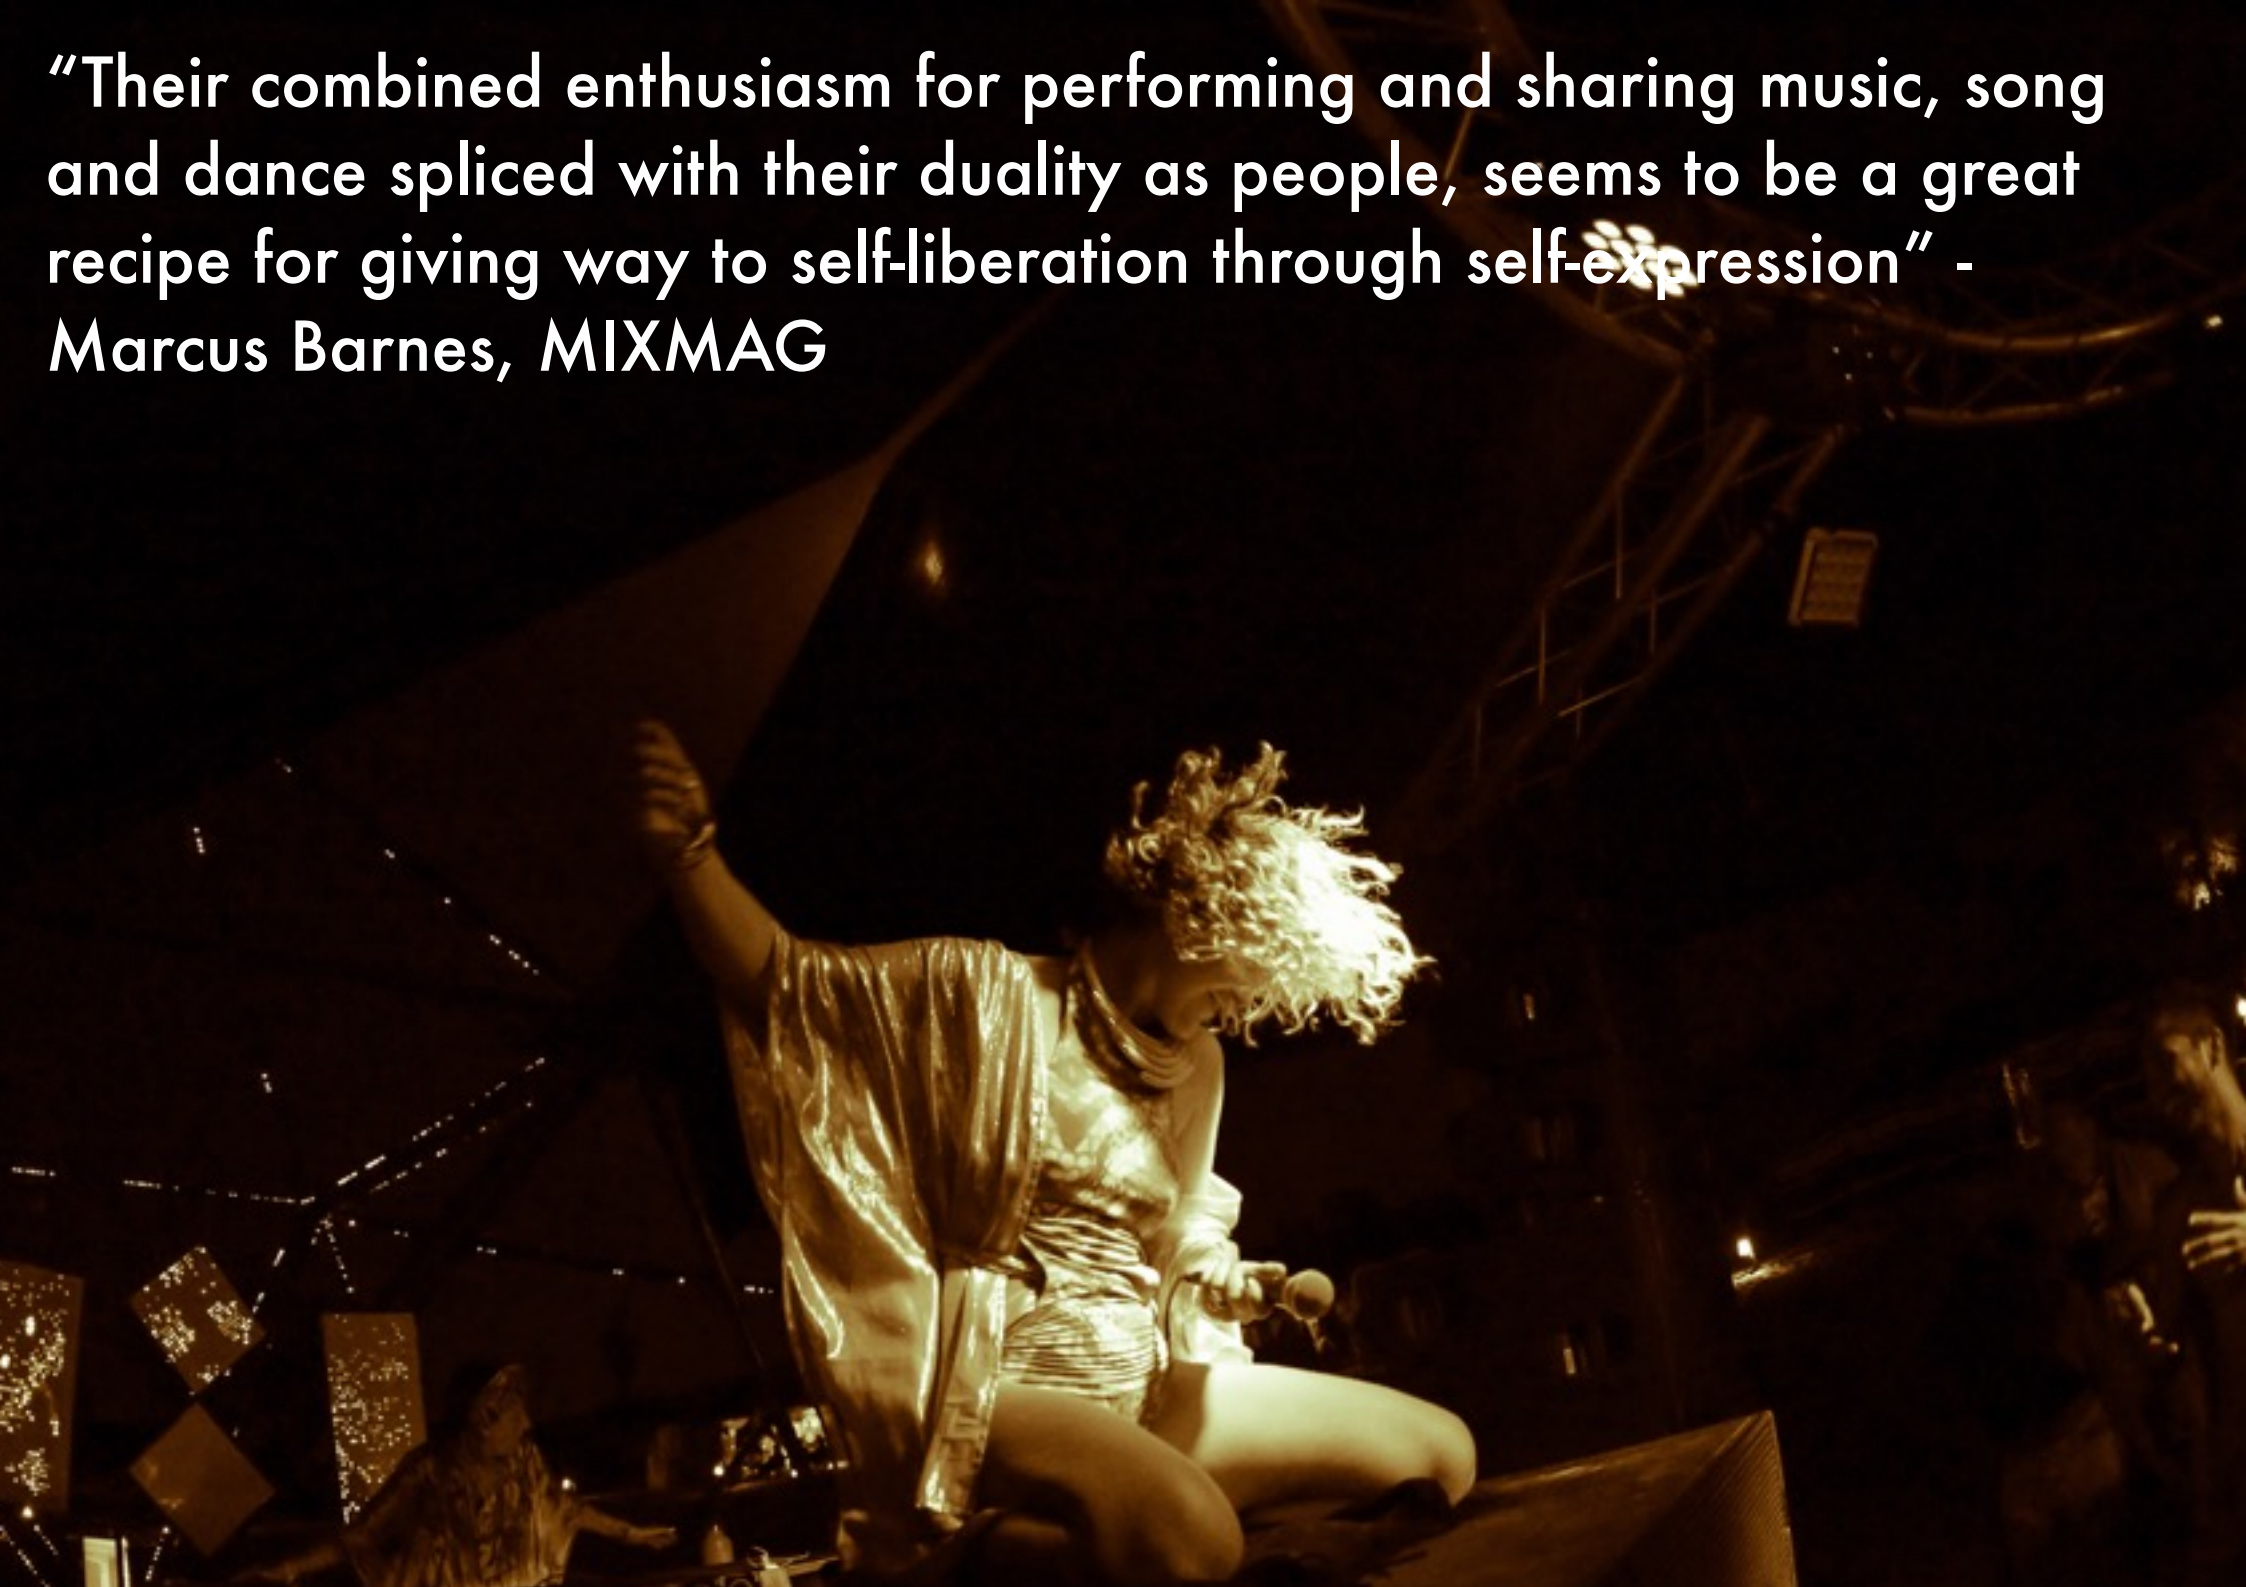

With their live show drawing in crowds to notable stages across the world - from Central America, Asia, Europe and the USA, they've been billed alongside artists such as Oona Dahl, Damian Lazarus, Acid Pauli, Eduardo Castillo, Soul Clap, Be Svenson, KMLN, Robbie Akbal and Pillowtalk. Now having also launched their own intentional festival, COLOURS OF LOVE: "creating worldwide experiences in ceremony, music, art and community" they are on an upward trajectory to share their message.

2019 sees them launch their first EP, as well as collaborations with stand out producers. This is a pivotal year that sees this powerful duo continue in their success to leave a trail of admiration in their wake and a soaring reputation in front of them, for bringing something real and profound to the dance floor and the zeitgeist of our modern day evolution.

“Their combined enthusiasm for performing and sharing music, song and dance spliced with their duality as people, seems to be a great recipe for giving way to self-liberation through self-expression” -
Marcus Barnes, MIXMAG

“As Wild Sirenda, Lizz and Guinevere create spaces in which people can release, become empowered through music and dance, and set themselves on a pathway to heal” - DON'T LOSE THE MAGIC
